

SHOT EVERY SOUL ON SHIP AT SEA

Colored Man Murders Men, Women, and Baby.

FIEND THEN LOOTS VESSEL

Girl, Wounded, Swims Ashore—Starves in Bushes Two Days Before Help Comes.

NEW ORLEANS, July 12.—Capt. Hans Holme, of the Norwegian frigate Bratt, which plies between New Orleans and Honduras ports, brought an unusual story of murder when his ship docked yesterday. It was subsequently confirmed by the officers of the frigate that a colored man, who came in later with additional details.

The little island of Utilia, lying off the Honduras coast, and whose population is an indiscriminate mixture of whites, Caymanites, and Caribs, was the scene of the tragedy in which twelve lives were sacrificed.

Thirteen Persons Aboard.

The captain of the schooner Olympia was about to make a voyage to Ruatan, Truxillo, and Belize. He had about 1,400 dollars and was to buy cattle at Truxillo to sell at Belize. He carried a crew of four and quite a number of passengers, making the total number of people aboard thirteen. Among these were two women and two children.

The vessel reached the harbor of Utilia last Friday night, and after she had been under way less than an hour all hands were aroused by a shot. Rushing on deck they found a colored man armed with a Winchester rifle shooting down the men one after another.

The man was Robert McGill, and it afterward developed that he had stowed himself away on board with the intention of robbing the captain and then swimming ashore.

Last Man Killed.

After he had killed all but one of the men, he ordered the last survivor to go below and scuttle the ship. When the unfortunate appeared on deck and reported, he was shot dead. He then put the two women, Miss Elsie Morgan and her sister, Mrs. Walter Rose, in the dory with Mrs. Rose's six weeks' old infant, and left the boat, steering for the mainland.

He changed his mind about allowing the women to live, and killed Mrs. Rose and her child. Then he began shooting at Miss Morgan and wounded her in the arm. She jumped overboard and started to swim back to the island. He fired at her ineffectually, but his ammunition evidently gave out, for he promised her immunity from harm if she would come back to the dory.

Struck Her With Oar.

She started back, and when within an oar's length he struck her on the head with an oar, stunning her. Believing she was dead, he rowed away toward the mainland.

Miss Morgan swam back to the island, where she was thrown on the beach by the waves in an exhausted condition. She feared that the murderer would follow her, so she hid in the bushes, and for two days suffered from the heat and exposure until found by a woman from her neighborhood.

In the meantime the dory had been washed ashore, and there was excitement on the island, as it was believed that the Olympia had gone down with all hands. When Miss Morgan told her story an immediate search was instituted for McGill, and the authorities on the mainland were notified.

Murderer Is Caught.

They caught him at El Porvenir, a little town on the road to Celiba, and there was quite a demonstration, but he was protected. His life was saved through the presence on the coast of President Bonilla, who was on an inspection tour.

The Honduran warship La Tumbia, which has figured in so many revolutions, was brought into service, and the murderer placed aboard and sent back to the island.

Up to last Sunday he was still alive, though it is firmly believed he will be tortured to death. The laws of Honduras prohibit the infliction of capital punishment, but the people will take the case in their own hands.

Miss Morgan, the only survivor of the terrible experience, visited New Orleans three years ago, and is a well-educated, refined young woman of twenty-five years.

HIBERNIAN CHIEF WILL VISIT ERIN

PATRICK T. MORAN.

Friends and Fellow-Irishmen Honor Leader With Banquet on Eve of Departure.

ENLISTING CADETS FOR ENCAMPMENT

Officers Elected and Recruiting Officers Appointed—Prizes in Athletics.

The committee in charge of the encampment of High School Cadets will hold an open meeting tomorrow in the Ebbitt House. This meeting is chiefly for the purpose of giving parents of the boys an opportunity to consult with the commandant concerning plans for the encampment.

Cadets who have not enlisted will have an opportunity to register their names and select their tent mates. A chart of the camp grounds has been made and will be exhibited on Friday evening.

A meeting was held on last Saturday night at the home of Capt. C. O. Howard, and the following cadets were elected to serve as officers:

First Battalion—Colonel, Creed W. Fulton; major, Charles Potter.

Second Battalion—Major, Eugene F. Leger.

The following were named as recruiting officers, to whom application for registration may be made: Company A, Capt. Frank S. Marlowe, 130 East Capitol street; Company B, Capt. H. H. Warner, 1226 Thirty-sixth street; Company C, Capt. Winifred W. Sternberg, 207 Twelfth street northwest; Company D, Capt. J. Edward Law, 1627 Fourteenth street northwest.

All orders pertaining to the encampment will hereafter be issued by the colonel to captains in the form of a circular letter. As the positions of lieutenants and non-commissioned officers are yet to be filled, an early enlistment is desired.

Camp routine has been made out by the officers and approved by the commandant. It is as follows:

Reveille, 7 a. m.; setting-up exercise, ocean plunge; breakfast, 8 a. m.; guard mount, 9 a. m.; dismissal from military duty from 10 to 12 noon; dinner, 12 noon; dismissal from military duty from 1 to 5:30 p. m.; supper, 6 p. m.; dress parade, 7 p. m.; dismissal, 7:30 p. m.; taps, 10 p. m.

Prizes will be given for skill in athletic events, which will form a large portion of the informal program during the encampment.

Baltimore and Return, Baltimore and Ohio R. R. every Saturday and Sunday, $12.5. All trains both ways, both days, except Royal Limited. "Hourly Service" week days.

Portland, Ore., via Scenic C. & O. Ry. Lewis and Clark Exposition. Liberal rates and stop-over privileges.

ARRIVAL OF SHOWERS BRINGS SOME RELIEF

Humidity, However, Has Broken Record, and More Warm Weather Is Expected.

After many days of watching and waiting, the long-predicted series of showers has finally come, and for a time last night and this morning a slight relief came to Washington.

The rain, which began early yesterday evening, had been confidently looked for all day, and when it finally came the air was as cool and refreshing as if it had been made to order.

Indications are, however, that clear weather is close at hand, and tomorrow will see the end of the showers, and Washington will again be thrown into the grasp of a warm wave.

Today, because of the rain, the humidity has broken its record for the month, having registered 98 at 11 o'clock this morning. This is 2 degrees higher than it has been so far, and its effect has been manifest.

Naturally, the temperature is lower today, but that has in no manner relieved the oppression. The air is heavy, and with practically no wind, the day has been as uncomfortable as usual.

The temperature at the Weather Bureau at 11 o'clock was 73, while down town the thermometer registered only 61. Nothing but hot weather is outlined on the weather maps, and folks here might just as well get ready for it, for it's coming, just as sure as Christmas.

CONTRACTOR F. L. HANVEY DIES OF BRIGHT'S DISEASE

Frank L. Hanvey, well-known contractor and builder, died early this morning, of Bright's disease, at his home, 1415 Bacon street northwest. He had been in ill health for some time. Up to a few days ago, however, he took active interest in his business.

Mr. Hanvey came to Washington from Leesburg, Va., in 1888. He erected the Home Life Insurance building, the Corcoran Hotel, the Washington Post Building, and several churches, among which is the Mt. Pleasant Congregational. At the time of his death he was engaged in the construction of the new Y. M. C. A. building. He was a prominent member of the Washington Board of Trade and a member of Washington Commandery, Knights Templar.

The deceased is survived by his wife, Mrs. Emma Karr Hanvey, and one daughter, nine years old. Arrangements for the funeral will not be made until this evening.

$2 Cumberland; $1.35 Berkeley Springs; $1.60 Harpers Ferry and Martinsburg and return. Leave Baltimore and Ohio R. R. station 8:35 a. m., Sunday, July 16. Opportunity to spend Sunday in country.

TWO WASHINGTONIANS TO VISIT IRELAND

President P. T. Moran and Arthur Small Given "God Speed" by Fellow-Countrymen—Banquet Given Them at the Raleigh Last Night.

P. T. Moran, president of the Ancient Order of Hibernians of the District of Columbia, and Arthur Small, one of the pioneer members of the organization in the District, will leave this city tonight for a three months' tour of England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales, France, and Switzerland. The trip is partly in the interest of the Hibernians and partly one of pleasure.

Both Mr. Moran and Mr. Small were born on the "old sod," and came to this country when very young and have gained enviable reputations by reason of character, thrift, and industry in the business circles of this city.

Mr. Moran is proprietor of a grain and feed store in Georgetown. Mr. Small has an important position in the Bureau of Engraving and Printing.

Mr. Small is a hero of the civil war. He held a commission as major in the volunteers and served with honor and credit throughout the long and bloody struggle.

The trip to Ireland beginning tonight will be his first visit to his mother country in fifty-two years.

Friends of both Mr. Small and Mr. Moran, numbering about forty, tendered them a banquet last night at the Raleigh Hotel and wished them good speed to the home of the "shamrock."

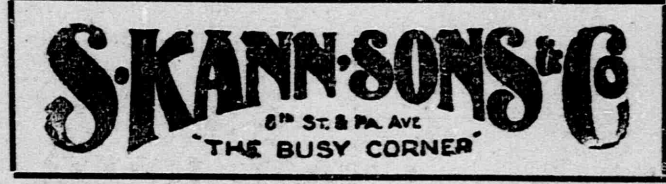

Among the prominent Hibernians who were present at the banquet table were James F. Shea, of Carroll Institute; Thomas Burke, of Baltimore; R. F. Downing, John J. Bodson, John J. Dolan, M. P. Sullivan, P. J. Hattigan, William McGuire, P. T. Nihand, Dr. E. J. Collins, William Buckley, J. D. O'Connor, Joan McConnell, and J. H. Heenan.

Mr. Downing acted as toastmaster, and said that he hoped the visit to Erin would inspire new zeal in the hearts of the people of the old country and awaken fresh hopes for such liberty-loving people as the Irish race.

The banquet closed with the singing of that song so familiar to every son of Erin, "God Save Ireland."

ROBERT M. MOORMAN, JOURNALIST, DEAD

Well Known in Washington, Where He Represented a Number of South-ern Papers.

Word has been received in Washington of the death of Robert M. Moorman, which occurred at Atlanta, Ga., early yesterday morning.

Mr. Moorman was for the past five years a prominent Washington cor-respondent, representing a number of Southern papers, among which were the Memphis Commercial-Appeal, the Nash-ville American, and the Atlanta News.

He was compelled to leave Washington on account of ill health last winter, and went to his home at Summerville, Tenn. Lately he was so much improved that he went to Atlanta to accept a position on one of the newspapers there.

He had been in that city but a few days when his sudden death occurred. The funeral services will be held at the home of his father, Col. H. C. Moor-man, at Summerville.

FRANCIS JOSEPH WANTS NO NONSENSE

BERLIN, July 12.—In anticipation of trouble in Hungary, Emperor Francis Joseph, who the other day said that he wanted no "Norwegian nonsense" in his empire, has begun to withdraw the Hungarian Magyar regiments from Hun-gary, and is replacing them with Ger-man and Polish troops.

The Emperor cannot be moved, but Austrian officers affect to regard the Hungarian militia as of little value. It is certain that in the event of open rebellion on the part of Hungary, the Emperor Francis Joseph would not take his deposition as King of Hungary as calmly as King Oscar of Sweden took the Norwegian revolution.
